2018 Board & Skilled Volunteer Fair

Presented By the Harvard Club of Seattle, the Harvard Alumni Association, and the Center for Public Interest Careers

The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation 500 5th Ave N, Seattle, WA 98109

Thank you to our sponsors

Host

BILL & MELINDA
GATES foundation

Guided by the belief that every life has equal value, the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation works to help all people lead healthy, productive lives. In developing countries, it focuses on improving people's health and giving them the chance to lift themselves out of hunger and extreme poverty. In the United States, it seeks to ensure that all people-especially those with the fewest resources-have access to the opportunities they need to succeed in school and life.

United Way of King County

United Way brings caring people together to give, volunteer, and take action to help people in need and solve our community's toughest problems. We focus on building a community where people have homes, students graduate and families are financially stable. United Way also promotes volunteerism year-round and across all issue areas via our volunteer website, strengthening nonprofits, and mobilizing volunteers strategically to meet community needs.

Technology Education and Literacy (TEALS) is a volunteer program funded by Microsoft Philanthropies. TEALS works to build and grow sustainable, high quality, and rigorous computer science (CS) programs in high schools by working directly with classroom teachers to help them build their CS teaching capacity. TEALS volunteers bring CS industry experience to the computer science curriculum and inspire the next generation of computer scientists.

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Toni Hoover, Director of Strategy Planning and Management for Global Health at the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, leads a team that is responsible for supporting the programs and functions with business strategy and operations, portfolio and project management, and engagement with product development partners. Her team works to create more opportunities to consistently deliver high impact interventions in global health by integrating the network of diverse partners involved in product development. She was also responsible for establishing the foundation's Fellows program.

Before joining the foundation in 2012, Toni was Senior Vice President and Site Director at Pfizer Worldwide Research and Development, overseeing the operations of the company's largest R&D laboratories located in Groton, Connecticut. She is a 25-year veteran of pharmaceutical R&D product development and management where she held positions in clinical research and operations, project and portfolio management, and laboratory and facilities management. While at Pfizer she led the global development of Lyrica® from exploratory development through early commercialization.

Toni is originally from New Orleans, Louisiana. She received her Bachelor of Arts, Masters and Doctorate in Psychology and Social Relations from Harvard University. She serves on several not-for-profit boards, including University of Washington Medicine (Seattle), New York Academy of Sciences-International Board of Governors (NYC), the Joyce Theater (NYC), the Pacific Northwest Ballet (Seattle), and is a former member of the Board of Trustees for Xavier University of Louisiana (New Orleans).

The Harvard Club of Seattle, Harvard Alumni Association, and the Center for Public Interest Careers (CPIC) at Harvard College extend our warmest welcome to the attendees of the 2018 Board and Skilled Volunteer Fair!

Below, you'll find brief descriptions and contact information for each of the 40 organizations represented in this publication. Organizations are listed alphabetically within each subject category. We hope you enjoy familiarizing yourself with the work of these organizations.

Please note that while the fair sponsors reached out to a wide-range of organizations to participate, we have not worked with all of the registered organizations in the past and cannot guarantee or endorse the work of specific organizations. Attendees are responsible for exercising their own due diligence if making a commitment to a particular organization.

SWS Fund

SWS Fund was established to raise money and to distribute it to teachers at the Seattle World School, whose student population is primarily refugees and immigrants from Central America, Africa, the Middle East and Southeast Asia for whom English is not their primary language. Because the students either do not have parents here or because their parents are not well off, there is no PTA to raise money for basic and supplementary materials to help the students. Thus far we have raised money for, e.g., computers, for field trips, for printers, for art supplies, and for pencils. There is more need than we have been able to meet. We also need more tutors to assist in the classroom, an incredibly rewarding experience, whether one is there for 2 hours a week or 20.

Team Read

"Teens tutoring kids to achieve reading success." We support children disproportionately impacted by the reading achievement gap--low income children of color and English language learners-- become confident, successful readers. Our investment in their reading success prepares and empowers them for future achievements. Our work meets an urgent need for reading support with vulnerable students and has a lasting impact on both the young readers and the teens who tutor them.
